The Gospel (Jn 20, 1-9)

Early on the first day of the week, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene came to the tomb and saw that the stone had been removed from the tomb. So she ran and went to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one whom Jesus loved, and said to them, "They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid him." Then Peter and the other disciple set out and went toward the tomb. The two were running together, but the other disciple outran Peter and reached the tomb first. He bent down to look in and saw the linen wrappings lying there, but he did not go in. Then Simon Peter came, following him, and went into the tomb. He saw the linen wrappings lying there, and the cloth that had been on Jesus' head, not lying with the linen wrappings but rolled up in a place by itself. Then the other disciple, who reached the tomb first, also went in, and he saw and believed; for as yet they did not understand the scripture, that he must rise from the dead. This is the Gospel of the Lord.

MY DEAR PARISHIONERS, AND FRIENDS OF OUR PARISH!

The joy of the Resurrection is upon us! Today, we celebrate Jesus' victory on death and sin. I wish you to experience this power which will change your ways of living. Jesus reminds us that suffering and death do not have the last word. The final word will be the glorious resurrection.
