Entrance Rite

V. The breakers of death surged round about me; the menacing clouds terrified me. The cords of Sheol tightened; the snares of death lay in wait for me.

R. In my distress I called out: Lord! I cried out to my God. From His temple He heard my voice; my cry to Him reached His ears.

V. Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.

R. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen

The Gospel (Lk 7, 11-17)

Soon afterwards he went to a town called Nain, and his disciples and a large crowd went with him. As he approached the gate of the town, a man who had died was being carried out. He was his mother's only son, and she was a widow; and with her was a large crowd from the town. When the Lord saw her, he had compassion for her and said to her, "Do not weep." Then she came forward and touched the bier, and the bearers stood still. And he said to her, "Young man, I say to you, rise!" The dead man sat up and began to speak, and Jesus gave him to his mother. Fear seized all of them; and they glorified God, saying, "A great prophet has risen among us!" and "God has looked favourably on his people!" This word about him spread throughout Judea and all the surrounding country. This is the Gospel of the Lord.
